COLEMAN, (Alberta) FRIDAY, JUNE 16th, 1916

NUMBER 52.

VISITED BY BROTHER FIRST TIME IN 40 YEARS

Coleman Man Has Not Been East of Lethbridge Since Coming West Nearly Half Century Ago.

One of the most familiar figures seen in this part of The Pass for several years is Mr. John Johnston, proprietor of the "Eagle" restaurant in Coleman. "Jack" is not what you would call loquacious. Indeed, it is not often that he can be induced to say very much about his rambles or experiences in the great west; nevertheless, there is more real western romance lying quietly under his Stetson than one could get by reading a dozen volumes of Ralph Connor.

Last week "Jack" was visited by his brother, George of Winnipeg, and when casually mentioning the matter to The Bulletin he also added that it was the first time he had seen his brother in forty-three years. Scouting from this bit of information the makings of a real human interest story, the reporter pried the genial townsman with a few well directed questions, with the result that some very interesting information was secured.

It appears the Johnston family came into the then great unknown West nearly half a century ago. They made the trip by train via Moorehead, Man. From there Jack made a trip to Winnipeg with a party of mounted police, returning in two weeks time.

The same year, on July 6th, he left with another party of mounted police for Fort Macleod, reaching that point on September 13th.

Here the party built themselves a shack of logs and mud. It was so small that when any of the party wanted to put on or take off his tunic he had to go outside to perform the operation, and its general construction was such that when it stormed the rain continued falling on the inside for a day after it had quit raining outside.

A few years later Jack settled on a ranch in the foothills near Cowley, and except for a short trip when he was coming to Coleman a few years ago he has never been on a train since he left Moorehead. He has never been east of Lethbridge since he landed at Fort Macleod.

"No, I don't go around much," said Jack in answer to the reporter's expressions of amazement. He signed on with the mounted police for three terms, but only served six months of his third term. He was allowed to leave the force before his term was up by reason of his excellent record, and on promising to stay in the country. And he has certainly kept his promise.

Though some sixty-five years of age, Mr. Johnston is hale and hearty. He does every morning the year round never later than five o'clock, and looks good for many, many years of active life yet.

The brother, Mr. George Johnston, went on to the coast from here and will return to Winnipeg later via the main line.

Earl Kitchener, British Secretary of State for War, lost off the Orkney Islands, by the sinking of the cruiser Hampshire, and mourned by a nation and her allies.

COLEMAN BOYS WON MEDALS AT COLLEGE

Coleman has had a signal honor bestowed upon it this week by the splendid showing made at Mount Royal College, Calgary, by Harry Clark and Arthur Pelletier. These two boys are the only students attending the above institution from The Pass towns, as far as we have been able to learn, and they have succeeded in capturing the highest possible honors and all the medals in their particular department.

In the commercial department, covering sixteen subjects, Harry Clark won the gold medal, this being the first time in the history of the college that this medal for general proficiency has been won by a student in this department.

Then in the same department, Arthur Pelletier carried off the silver medal, the only other medal put up in that department. Thus, the two Coleman representatives at the college have made a showing of which not only their parents, but the whole community, may well feel proud.

In addition to the above excellent record, Harry and Arthur were successful in obtaining a diploma with honors, getting first and second position respectively, or the two highest diplomas out of the three given by the commercial department of the college.

The presentation of the medals and diplomas was made at the college on Sunday when Dr. Kirby took occasion to pay tribute to the two Coleman boys and the remarkable results they have accomplished at that institution.

As soon as his college term had ended Harry Clark took the train for Macleod and enlisted with the 191st battalion now forming there. He has thus the distinction of being the youngest recruit from Coleman so far, he being but fifteen years old. Fernie Beck comes second in point of age, being 17 years.

That a boy with such bright prospects before him should make it his first business to serve his country, though several years under age, is so much to his credit that any further comment on his action in these columns would be superfluous.

Prohibition

Chicago has had a trial of prohibition of the liquor traffic every Sunday beginning October 10th, and the result must indicate that the sooner the whole world goes dry the better for everybody. When the saloons were open there was an average of three murders every Sunday and a large number of accidents on Monday. Since the saloons are closed on Sunday there has not been a murder on that day, and Monday accidents have been greatly reduced.

The editor of the Canadian Templar has been in Chicago investigating and has given some interesting facts bearing on Sunday closing. Ten thousand bartenders will now have a day of rest, and it has been estimated that the citizens of Chicago will save about twenty-eight million dollars a year by Sunday closing.

A chorus of approval comes from the heads of the big manufacturing and mercantile industries. The reports show that there are fewer Monday accidents, merchants report selling more goods on Monday, and that Monday efficiency has greatly increased in the factories. The foremen at Swift & Co.

packing plant Morris Cudahy and S.S. plant all agree with the foreman Armour's, who said: "Our workmen come to the plant Mondays with clear heads and rested bodies. It was the complaint of all packers before the saloons were closed that many men either did not show up or were very little use on Monday. Last Monday all the men were promptly on hand with steady muscles, rested bodies and minds fit for their tasks."

The manager of the Illinois steel plant issued a statement to this effect: "Our workmen were all on hand last Monday for the first time in years. When we asked them what caused the change they said they had nothing to do Sunday but rest for Monday. Marshall Field & Co. and other big State street department stores report the biggest Monday sales in years."

That the temperance forces should win such a victory in a city that has long been known as the heart of the liquor interests is indeed good news. The American people are doing a lot of thinking these days."

Mrs. (Capt.) Cameron went east on Saturday evening and will sail from New York for the Old Country in a few days.

RED CROSS WILL FURNISH LUNCH

Ample Preparations Are Being Made To Serve Lunch on the Grounds to the Large Crowd Expected in Coleman on July First.

After the officers of the Mining Institute and the local committees had completed arrangements for the two excursion trains that are coming to Coleman on July first, the next problem to be faced was that of "Feeding the multitude."

Obviously, the various lunch rooms that are regularly in operation could not begin to cater to the two thousand or more visitors who will be here on the above date, and having been the means of bringing the people to Coleman, the committee realized fully that the responsibility of providing them with adequate meals rested upon its shoulders.

However, someone said "When in doubt ask a woman," so the committee approached the local Red Cross Society, with the result that plans have been completed to cater to and provide meals for as many people as are likely to visit Coleman on Dominion Day.

A large booth or pavilion, probably a hundred feet square, will be erected among the shade trees at the north-west corner of the grounds, and the members of the Red Cross Society will arrange to provide all that is required in the way of eatables.

Coleman has a population of about three thousand when the mines are in operation, and it is possible that an equal number of visitors will be here on July first. Just how large a contract it will be to feed our guests can be well imagined if one stops to consider what a job it would be to serve two meals to every man, woman and child in Coleman.

The committee has its program in final shape now and it will be printed in full next week. In the meantime hundreds of large bills and several thousand small bills will be circulated in every town between Lethbridge and Fernie (inclusive). This advertising matter is now in the hands of the printers and will be ready in a day or so.

Frank

Jack McSweeney has enlisted with the 192nd battalion. He looks well in the uniform. Vincent O'Leary has also enlisted.

Miss Sarah McGaw, who has been hostess of the Calabash boarding house for some time, paid a visit to other parts of the province during the past week and returned on Sunday morning to notify the inhabitants that she had lost on her trip something that she had carried with her from childhood. She does not look very sad about it, as it was simply her maiden name. A wedding feast of no ordinary type was spread at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McLean, the newly married couple, when a large number of the bride's friends met to wish them a long and happy life.

Word has been received from the old country that Tom Longworth, who left Frank in the early part of the war, enlisting with the 3rd C. M. R. at Mud-dine Hat, has received his discharge and is now on his way back to Canada. Pte. Longworth saw service in France and is returning owing to his health failing.

It was reported some weeks ago that Laughlin McMillan was killed in action in France, but that was a mistake. He was badly wounded and is now improving in the hospital. He had a piece of shrapnel imbedded in his head.

Mr. Alex. Emery, who enlisted with the 50th battalion, with a lot of others from Frank, has been returned, and is now at his home in Nova Scotia.

The whole community here was shocked at the news of sorrow when the message came of the death of James Dunlop. A fitting memorial service was held at the Methodist church on Sunday night. The remarks were based on the text: "Greatest love hath no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friend." The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mrs. Dunlop.

W. Simpson and Miss Simpson left on Sunday night to attend the big patriotic stampede at Cleichen this week.

Laurie Ryan, an old timer in The Pass, is around again. He is one of the up-to-date men who can adjust their mental attitude to the times in which they live. He is not selling real estate now, he is handling tomb-

Bellevue

To the Editor of The Bulletin: Dear Sir:—Kindly insert in the columns of your paper the following article.

"The members of the Red Cross Society, Bellevue, wish to thank through the medium of the press Mr. Johnson, manager of the Lyric Theatre, Bellevue for the handsome sum of $55.10 received from the benefit picture show given by him on the evening of May 17th, in aid of the Red Cross Society. The above mentioned amount represents all incidental expenses. Mr. Johnson has set an example which might well be followed by other theatrical managers in aid of a cause so worthy of support as is the Red Cross."

A. J. KELLY, Sec'y

John Stirling, of the Coal Mines Branch of Alberta, spent a few hours in Coleman on Thursday and took occasion to express his pleasure at the enthusiasm displayed by the twolocal committees who are making arrangements for the big Dominion Day program here. Mr. Stirling is specially interested in the first aid and mine rescue work, and is doing all he possibly can to ensure the success of these competitions here.

An intimate friend of a Coleman young man who was married recently asked us "not to say too much about it" because of the modesty of the groom. We always like to oblige, so we have written up the happy event elsewhere in this issue in a single sentence.

On Sunday next, June 18th, there will be Holy Communion in St. Albans church at 8 a.m. Evensong at 7 p.m. with the subject of Rev. H. Clay's address will be "The Unity of Christendom."

From November 1st, 1915, to May 31st, 1916, the sum of $1,200.00 was paid out of the Canadian Patriotic Fund to soldiers' dependents who were actually living in Coleman.

Mrs. J. A. Barbour, of Winnipeg (nee Miss L. Beck) is spending a short vacation with her parents here.

The man who ever sold real estate around here is lucky if some one does not present him with a tombstone.

C. J. Tompkins and family left for Nova Scotia last Saturday night on a holiday trip.

Putting Up Cordwood

The Alix Jack Pine and Fuel Co., of Alix, Alta., have opened up a camp at Scenty and for the next six months or more will be busily engaged in getting out a supply of cordwood—and mine props, for which they state they find a ready market.

The camp here is in charge of Mr. J. Bullos, an experienced bush man, who states that something like two hundred carloads of cordwood and mine props will be shipped from this district as soon as it can be cut and loaded. A gasoline outfit is at present employed, which cuts the wood into the required lengths and loads it onto the cars.

A gang of about a dozen men are at present employed at this camp.

J. C. Hendry, formerly of Athabasca Landing, has opened up a law office in the Cameron block and is locating permanently in Coleman. A friend at our elbow suggests that the purpose of a lawyer in any community is either to keep people out of jail or to help put some of them in the calaboose; and as we have managed to keep out of the coop without a lawyer, some of us are wondering what the future has in store for us now that a good lawyer has located in our midst. Mrs. Hendry and family will arrive in a few days.

Rossio Gadiso, an Italian, hit a Russian over the head with a chunk of iron pipe the other day and made quite a large dent in the pipe. He appeared before Inspector Junget and was fined $20 and costs or two months at Macleod. Rossio said he would rather part with all his wife's relations than spend two minutes in the Windy City, so he cheerfully dug up the twenty.

Messrs. V. H. Lowdon and H. C. McBurney have dissolved the partnership which has existed between them in connection with the butcher shop. Mr. Lowdon is continuing the business.

Lethbridge Excursion

Excursions to Coleman seem to be quite in vogue this season. The Dominion Day Celebration Committee had arranged for a special to run from Lethbridge to Coleman on July first, and the Rocky Mountain Branch of the Canadian Mining Institute arranged for another from Fernie to Coleman.

Before twenty-four hours had elapsed after the committee had put up its guarantee to the C.P.R., however, it was learned that a third excursion to Coleman was arranged by the Lethbridge Sunday Schools to run from Taber to Coleman on July 6th. And while the latter was of course just as welcome as the flowers in May, yet it was realized that it came too soon after Dominion Day to ensure any success.

The local committee thereupon got in touch with the managers of the Lethbridge Sunday Schools and were successful in getting them to change their date and come to Coleman on July 1st instead of on the 6th. Coleman's special train has therefore been cancelled and in its stead will come the annual excursion train, with its usual big crowd of visitors, of the Lethbridge Sunday Schools.

While at work moving Sam Moore's residence last week A. E. Knowles had the misfortune to break his leg just below the knee. The accident was caused by the sudden loosening of one end of the chain by which the building was being pulled. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Messrs. Disney and Johnston are making good progress on the addition to the mounted police barracks here. The same contractors have just completed the erection of a new kitchen and other improvements to the maine.

Messrs. Geo. Clair, Cecil Gowar, Mayor Morrison and Major Bagley motored to Fernie on Sunday. They returned home in good condition.

Hymeneal

Beddington-Machin

In obedience to the universal mandate and innate instinct which with irresistible alluring magnetism is ever drawing into juxtaposition the beautiful and the chivalrous, the brave and the gay, softly and sweetly as the song of sirens, but nevertheless unceasing and eternally as the mariner's compass is ever seeking the pole, until in procession of time two existences, two lives, two individuals which have hitherto flowed on each in its independent course through the vicissitudes of this mundane sphere, even as two mountain rivulets have rippled on separately and thoughtlessly over their pebbly beds through sunshine and shadow until at last escaping from their mountain fastnesses they emerge upon the surrounding plain to blend together in a single purling brook destined forevermore to travel as a single purling ribbon of crystalline clearness toward the great ocean of futurity, two of our popular Coleman young people on Saturday, June 3rd, amalgamated their earthly existence into one harmonious entirety when Mr. F. Beddington accompanied Miss Emily Machin to St. Alban's church and there upon the hymeneal altar said the fateful words which bind the twain as one.

Haine-Shone

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Evans, on Tuesday, 6th June, at 5 p.m., a quiet and pretty wedding took place, when Mr. Thos. Haine and Miss Annie Shone were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Rev. D. K. Allan officiating. Miss Shone, wearing a lovely anemone silk gown, and leaning on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. R. Evans, took her place beside the bridegroom.

Miss Lottie Morgan acted as bridesmaid and wore a beautiful dress of white crepe de chene trimmed with pale blue silk.

Mr. Gradus Minne, teller of the Union Bank, Bellevue, assisted the bridegroom. After the ceremony, the company sat down to a most elaborate wedding breakfast. The toast of the evening—the bride and brides—was proposed by Mr. Evans and all joined most heartily in wishing them a long and prosperous journey through life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Haine left for the east on the evening train.

Short-Gate

In the Presbyterian church, Coleman, on Wednesday, June 14th, at 9 a.m., Albert F. Short and Miss Elizabeth Gate, both of Coleman, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Rev. D. K. Allan officiating.

The bride entered the church to the strain of Lohengrin's wedding march. She wore a beautiful white crepe de chene gown, with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried an exquisite bouquet of roses. Miss Charlotte Easton, wearing a lovely gown of white voile, acted as bridesmaid. The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Sidney Short, of Lehigh. The congregation joined in singing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," after which the pastor read appropriate scripture and offered prayer.

After the marriage obligation had been taken and the service ended, the popular young couple with their attendants motored to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gate, where a number of guests sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast.

The newly married couple left on the morning train for points in British Columbia, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

VERY INTERESTING SERVICE OF SONG

In the Presbyterian church, Coleman, on Sunday afternoon, June 4th, the annual service of song was rendered by the choir. There was a good attendance. The Rev. D. K. Allan occupied the chair, and after praise and prayer introduced the reader of the story, Principal Black, also conductor Lees and the choir in a few felicitous sentences.

The title of the piece was "The Roll Call." The choir was not up to full strength through removals and sickness, nevertheless it is safe to say it never performed better than on this occasion. The solos were splendidly rendered and showed depth of feeling and good expression. The part songs had richness and feeling, and were perfectly executed.

Too much cannot be said in praise of such an undertaking, especially when we remember how the choir has from time to time been depleted. All praise is due Mr. Lees for his untiring efforts and Coleman is the better by having such a choir in its midst.

The instrumental part of the service was ably rendered by Mr. Jos. Emmerson, and the story was splendidly read by Mr. Black. At the close of the service of song, the chairman spoke a few laudatory words and sought to express the appreciation of the audience to Mr. Lees and choir. The service was brought to a close by the singing of the doxology and the national anthem.

Thursday, May 11th was "Money Back Day" at Ouimette's store, and persons holding counter slips of that date are asked to present them at the store at once and receive the amount in cash. Many have already presented their checks and received sums varying from ten cents to ten dollars, and several persons have had the price of a pair of shoes returned. Read carefully our next "Money Back Offer" elsewhere in this issue.

Shoes on the Other Foot

Germany has complained bitterly of the attempt of England to starve out her civil population in order to bring the war to a close. This is a very pertinent question. Suppose that Germany, instead of Great Britain, had had command of the sea at the very beginning of the war. It has been stated many times that the home supply of Great Britain would not last over six weeks if her imports of foodstuffs were stopped. Is there anybody so silly as to believe that Germany, in case she had had command of the sea, would not have cut off Great Britain's supply of food instantly and entirely and brought her to her knees by starvation within two months after the institution of such a blockade? It must be remembered, also, as to Germany's complaint that the allies are trying to starve the civilian non-combatant population, that every bushel of American wheat going to Germany releases a bushel of German wheat to feed the army. Any importation of foodstuffs into Germany, therefore, is a civil population is therefore an indirect way of supporting the German army.—From the New York Outlook.

Daughter—What's the matter, father? You look worried.
Father (just retired from business)—Well, you see, my dear, I've never been without things to worry me before, and it bothers me.

Concentrated Satisfaction

A great many former users of tea and coffee have learned that there is a pure food beverage, made from wheat, which has delightful flavour.

Potassium Production

Government Will Regulate Developments of Areas in Far North

The department of the interior has issued a set of regulations governing the development of potassium in a large area of Dominion lands extending along the Peace, Athabasca and Mackenzie rivers.

The following preamble precedes the regulations which appeared in the Canada Gazette:

"Whereas it is also represented that the area of a location acquired under the provisions of the regulations approved by the order-in-council of the 13th August, 1908, above referred to is not sufficient to induce prospectors to incur the expenditure necessary to discover such salts, that discovery can only be made by means of deep bore holes, involving a very large expenditure, that the search may be quite unavailing, and that, owing to the very great public benefit which would result from such a discovery, it might be in the public interest if liberal inducements could be offered to companies willing to risk so large an initial outlay upon the chance of making a discovery, and,

"Whereas, owing to the great demand for certain salts of potassium for fertilizing purposes, and the fact that the present production is quite insufficient to satisfy the world's requirements,

The regulations permit of a lease of the lands in question not exceeding 1,920 acres, and the lease is to be applied for at Dominion land offices. The rental for the first year at the rate of 25 cents an acre shall accompany the application. Thereafter, the rate will be 50 cents an acre annually. One year after the securing of the lease the lessee shall have such machinery on the lands for prospecting purposes as the minister may consider necessary."

Shortage of News Print

The shortage of news print seems to be universal. The commission elected by the French press to study the means whereby the present paper crisis might best be overcome recently, when it was announced that the Journal, the Matin, the Petit Journal and the Petit Parisien, four leading papers each of which has a circulation of more than a million copies, have decided to reduce to four pages on five days of the week and six on the other two days.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that it is a reward of $100 is being offered for the discovery of a cure for the disease known as "Stinging Neuralgia." The cause of this disease is a blood poison, and it is a very painful and dangerous disease. The only cure is a blood purifier, and the only blood purifier that will cure it is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The reward is offered for the discovery of a cure for this disease, and the reward is $100.

Better Than "Whispering Gallery"

Apocryph of the secret of the ventilation chamber which passes beneath the House of Commons was recently mentioned as a place where a large number of persons can comfortably hear every word spoken in the chamber above. The tunnel was once crowded to its fullest capacity, and that was on the historic occasion of Mr. Gladstone's speech when the first Home Rule Bill was introduced.

Why is a watch like a river? Because it doesn't run long without winding.

First Shot Fired in War

It Was a Troop of the 4th Dragoon Guards on August 20, 1914

The first shot fired by the British army in the present war is said to have been discharged by a troop of the 4th Dragoon Guards on August 20, 1914, says the Mail and Empire. An account of the field artillery the honor of having been the first to let drive at the Hun seems to belong to the men of E Battery, R. A., who opened fire near Bray, a village in Belgium, on Saturday August 22.

The British navy, however, came into action far earlier, the actual first shot being discharged by the destroyer Lance, which surprised the German minelayer Koonigen Louise in the North Sea, and sank her in six minutes. This event occurred on Wednesday, August 5.

The first shot fired by any of the combatants in the war was discharged from the Hungarian monitor Orsava, on the Danube river, on July 28, the date of the declaration of hostilities by Austria against Serbia. A lightly armed Serbian patrol boat was hit, but managed to escape.

Curiously enough, the first shot in the Russo-Turkish war was fired by a also fired on the Danube and by a monitor. The name of this ship was the Lutfi-Djell, a Turkish vessel, and she discharged a single projectile at a Russian gunboat. Before she could fire another, her opponent let fly a torpedo, and blew her up with all her crew.

In the Franco-German war of 1870 the first shot fired was fired by a corporal in charge of a French frontier guard. It killed a German officer of Uhlans. The war of the Balkan League against Turkey was similarly begun by an armed Montenegrin peasant, who shot dead the leader of a Turkish patrol late in the afternoon of August 8, 1912.

A lady of great beauty and attractiveness, who was an ardent admirer of Ireland, once crowned her praise of it at a party by saying:

"I think I was meant for an Irishwoman."

"Madam," rejoined a witty son of Erin who happened to be present, "thousands would back me up in saying you were meant for an Irishman."

Aviator Again Escapes

Eugene Gilbert, French Airman, Reported to Have Escaped to Italy

Eugene Gilbert, one of the best known French aviators, who was interned in Switzerland in August last year on being compelled to land by lack of gasoline on Swiss soil after a raid on the Zeppelin establishment at Friedrichshafen, escaped for the third time. The Petit Parisien has information which has not been confirmed, officially, that M. Gilbert has reached Italy.

M. Gilbert, who established several world's records before the war, joined the French force at the outbreak of the war. His first escape from the detention camp in Switzerland was made shortly after he was interned. He reached Paris, but was sent back on the demand of the Swiss government because he did not give the authorities sufficient notice that he had withdrawn his word of honor not to attempt to escape. In February last M. Gilbert made his second attempt to regain his liberty, but was recognized, and was arrested at Olten, Switzerland.

STINGING NEURALGIA

The Trouble Due to Nerves Starved for Lack of Good Blood

An eminent medical writer has said that "neuralgia is the cry of starved nerves for better blood." The one great symptom of this trouble is pain, severe, stabbing pain, that almost drives the sufferer frantic. The cause is poor blood; the only cure is to enrich the blood. Heat applied to the inflamed nerves will give relief, but does not cure. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills furnish the blood all the needed elements, and the blood conveys them to the nerves. The only way of getting food or medicine to the nerves is through the blood, and the only way to enrich the blood is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In this way neuralgia, sciatica and other nerve disorders are promptly cured, and the whole system healed and strengthened. Mrs. M. Gleason, R. R. No. 1, Uxbridge, Ont., who was a great sufferer from neuralgia, says: "I suffered intensely from neuralgia for four years. My blood was thin and I was completely run down. I suffered intense pain all the time. At different times I consulted three doctors, but their treatment did me no more than give me temporary relief. Then I tried different medicines, but the result was the same—they seemed no good in my case. I was growing steadily worse, and finally could not leave the house nor do a bit of work. The last doctor I consulted could do nothing for me, but gave me morphine tablets to ease the pain, and by this time I had about resigned myself to a life of pain. Then one of Dr. Williams' almshouses came to our house and I read of similar cases cured through the use of Pink Pills. I got three boxes and before they were all gone the pain began to decrease, and I began to have a better appetite. By the time I had taken six boxes I was again a well woman, and my neighbors could hardly realize that such a change could be made in so short a time. Later I was bothered with eczema and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me. I have found these pills worth their weight in gold and I cheerfully recommend them to all who are ailing."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Write—Oh, Tom, look at the lovely silk stockings I got at a fire sale for seventeen cents. And not a thing the matter with them except the feet are burned off.

It is in Demand—So great is the demand for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that a large factory is kept continually busy making and bottling it. To be in demand shows popular appreciation, and this oil has won its place at the head of proprietary compounds as the leading oil in the market, and it is generally admitted that it is deserving of the lead.

The man getting his hair cut noticed that the barber's dog, which was lying on the floor beside the chair, had his eyes fixed on his master at work.

"You dog, that," said the customer.

"He is, sir."

"He seems very fond of watching you cut hair."

"It ain't that, sir," explained the barber. "You see, sometimes I make a mistake and clip off a little bit of a customer's ear."

Old Gotrox—You wish to marry my only daughter. Would you take her if I all I have to solace me in my old age?

New Icebreaker for Russia

Will Aid in Keeping Open Russia's Winter Port

Canada has sold her new giant ice-breaker, launched recently from the yards of the Canadian Vickers, Limited, at Montreal, to the Russian government.

The vessel will be completed during the coming fall and it is hoped will be delivered in time to aid in the work of keeping open Russia's winter port of Archangel.

This is the third Canadian vessel of the same kind to be turned over by the government to the Czar's empire. During the last two years the service of Russia. They have done effective work and in the expression of the Russian government's gratitude for the transfer of the vessels it was emphasized that they have been paid for their value many times over in the facilities they have afforded for the landing of cargoes of munitions.

A Few Good Hens

It is probably a fact that the average suburbanite with a few fowls in his back yard makes more than the farmer with his numerous scrub fowls and ideal range. Farmers of this class should learn that a dozen pure bred hens with good care will yield far greater profits than several times this number of scrubs.

Angler (in deep water)—Help! I can't swim!
Country Gentleman (on shore)—I can't either, but I ain't hollerin' about it.

A Scottish farmer of a miserly disposition bought a horse at a fair, on the way he thought of a drink of water; but the animal would not take it. When he got home, he ordered a feed of corn, but to his surprise it would not touch that, either. Well, he muttered to himself, if only I was sure ye were a guid worker, ye're the verri horse for me.

THROBBING, NEURALGIC HEADACHE CURED HEAD-SPLITTING DISTRESS VANISHES INSTANTLY

This Wonderful Curative Liniment Never Fails

RUB ON NERVILINE

Neuralgia quickly cured is twice, nay, ten times cured. Little neuralgia pain grows into big ones, but Nerviline is the only cure. There have been the worst ones. Even a single application will remove the nerve congestion that causes the pain.

Nerviline penetrates deeply into the sore tissue, reaches the source of inflammation, drives it out root and branch. Every drop of Nerviline is potent in pain-subduing power, and its strongest charm lies in the fact that it rubs right in, even to the very last drop. Nerviline is not greasy, and its pain-removing power is at least five times greater in strength than ordinary remedies.

We guarantee Nerviline will cure neuralgia—only if you rub it in. Actually and permanently cure it. Just in the same way it will cure lumbago, sciatica, stiffness and rheumatism. To counter all muscular and nerve pain, use Nerviline. A large bottle in the home keeps the doctor's bill small. Get the large 50c family size bottle; it is more economical than the 25c trial size. Sold by all druggists everywhere, or the Calaisienne Co., Kingston, Canada.

Germany's Intamy

The hideous story of the Wittgenberg Camp is unmatched for filth, cruelty and horror outside certain descriptions of Cathartian horrors in Flaubert's "Salammbô." There have been perfidies, murders and outrages by land and sea, but for torture inflicted with systematic callousness and infamy on helpless prisoners there has been nothing to touch this record.—London Observer.

A Comparison in Casualties

In less than two years Germany has lost in battle over five times as many soldiers as the Union lost in four years of the Civil War. Northern losses were 67,000 killed in battle and 43,000 who died of wounds, making a total of 110,000 killed. The German killed almost 200,000. Since the Kaiser has only about three times as large a population to draw upon as had Abraham Lincoln, and as he is losing men in battle over ten times as fast, the ratio of Germany's daily loss to population is more than three times as great as was the loss of the Northern States. But Germany is not allowing so many men to die of disease as did the United States. Disease took 199,000 Union soldiers, or upward of double as many as were taken by Confederate bullets.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

In the village of Tatworth, Somerset, England, the curious custom of letting a field by auction during the burning of an inch candle has just been perpetuated.

"Wish to marry my daughter, do you? Take my advice, don't."
"Why sir?"
"I have noticed evidence of insanity in her lately."
"Good heavens! What evidences?"
"Blame says she wants to marry you."

Cautious Wife—Dinna pay the fares yet, Angus. They may drop a bomb on us and then you'd have thrown good money away.

Does the Kaiser Reflect?

Sometimes in reviewing the career of the Kaiser it is more charitable, as well as perhaps, more just to believe him the victim of a monomania. An inordinate vanity is often a form of dementia, and the man who has allowed the horrible illusion of his own infallibility to overcome him becomes a lunatic, nursing dreams of illimitable greatness. Yet, perhaps, even on occasions when his subjects are celebrating his birthday there may come moments when the German emperor himself starts back horrified at what he has done. It is difficult to imagine with what thoughts he reflects on the history of the last eighteen months, when he becomes aware in his heart of horrors—as he must do at times—that he is the author of the most hideous calamity which has ever befallen the sons of men.—London Telegraph.

The Terror of Asthma comes like a thief in the night with its dreadful throbbing, robbing its victim of breath. It seems beyond the power of human aid to relieve until one trial is made of that remarkable preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Then relief comes with a rush. Life becomes worth living, and, if the remedy be used persistently, the disease is put permanently to rest. Take no substitute.

Someone asked Whistler if he was acquainted with King Edward. He said: "No, I have not that pleasure."
"But the King says he knows you."
"Oh, well," responded Whistler, "you know he's always bragging."

"One of the rules for officers of the King's Navy reads: 'No officer shall speak discourteously to his mate either on the watch or at mess, concerning the business on which he is or may be engaged.'"

Only the uninformed endure the agony of a headache. The knowing ones apply Holloway's Corn Cure and get relief.

Headache is not a disease in itself, but comes as a warning to tell you that there is something wrong with the system. Consequently when you stop a headache by the use of powerful narcotic drugs, you merely stifle the "danger signal" by which Nature tells you that there is trouble ahead.

A starved condition of the nervous system is by far the most frequent cause of headache. You may be going too fast a pace and burning the candle at both ends. The nervous system has no opportunity to renew its vigor, and the result is nervous headache, sleeplessness, indigestion and irritability.

50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations disappoint.

Why not select a treatment that aims to remove the cause of trouble by enriching the blood and building up the starved and exhausted nerves. Such is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and the effectiveness of this food cure is so well known that we scarcely need tell you about it.

In almost every newspaper you will find some cure reported as a result of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The mention of it among your friends will reveal the fact that nearly everybody knows it as the standard medicine for diseases of the nerves and other ailments arising from a watery condition of the blood.
